POLICE COURT

Young Coal Heaver Held Over To Grand Jury—Warrants Out For Several Others.

Bill Burden, who was arrested on a charge of heaving coal from a C. & O. freight train, was tried yesterday and is held over to the grand jury on a charge of petit larceny, his bond being placed at $150.

Warrants are out for several others, but they have not yet been apprehended.

It is alleged that Burden and several others placed a torpedo on the railroad track and stopped a freight train several nights ago, the engineer thinking the torpedo was a signal. When the train stopped, Burden and his companions proceeded to throw off about 60 bushels of coal, but they were caught in the act by the trainmen, and warrants were sworn out for them.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE VOTE COMING UP JANUARY 12.

Washington.—Woman suffragists who called on Representative Henry, chairman of the House Rules Committee, learned that the proposed suffrage constitutional amendment probably would be voted on in the House January 12. Mr. Henry said he expected to see the amendment defeated by more than a two-thirds vote.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS UNTIL NEXT MONDAY.

Yesterday's session was a very short one. The case of Arn against the C. & O. railroad was called and attorneys for the railroad filed a demurrer which was argued at some length, but finally passed until next term of court by mutual agreement. Court adjourned until Monday, January 4.

SQUIRE BAUER'S COURT.

Only two cases in Squire Fred W. Bauer's Court yesterday—
Maria Brookins, using language to provoke breach of peace, $6.15.
Lizzie Moore, same offense, $5.55.
Don't miss the big Minstrel tonight; 50 people.

NEW YEAR

Ushered In By the Ringing of Bells and the Blowing of Many Whistles—Some Rowdiness Along West Second Street.

Amid the blowing of many many whistles and the ringing of "wild bells across the sky" the Old Year waned and died and the New Year was born and ushered in. To you who have done anything for the help of your town, state or country or in any other way have done anything for the blessing or the benefit of mankind during the past year, there should be only happiness and joy in the new-born year, but to those who are not satisfied with what they may have done last year, we can only say to forget the past and to count on doing something bigger, nobler and grander in 1915 than you have ever done before.

Some practical (?) joker or jokers evidently thought that it was Halloween instead of New Year, and proceeded to throw every sign and everything else that was loose into the street, starting at Market street and proceeding down Second street as far as Sutton. Quite a number of the signs looked as if a Kansas cyclone had hit them, as they were torn completely up.

In the different parts of the city a number of watch parties were held and at Neptune Hall the Maysville Dancing Club celebrated by dancing the Old Year out and the New Year in.

MAYSVILLE MAN IN ALLIED ARMY.

"The man from Maysville," as usual, turns up wherever any important event takes place. It seems to make no difference what is the occasion or where, the only requirement is that a large body of people be gathered together and it is safe to wager that a Maysvillian is in the crowd, especially if excitement is promised.

The latest one to turn up in an unexpected clime is Niland Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Thomas, formerly of this city, but now of Philadelphia. Niland was born in Maysville and his father will be remembered as one of the clerks in the Miner shoe store at Second and Sutton streets, while his mother will be remembered as Miss Margaret Niland. After graduating at Wannamaker Institute in Philadelphia Niland took part in the Jamaica uprising and later fought under General Villa in Mexico. Because of his military training Niland was given a commission in the English army and is now serving with the allies in Belgium.

HAVE QUIT LIQUOR BUSINESS.

The M. C. Russell Company, who have been in the wholesale liquor business at the corner of Third and Market streets in Maysville for two generations, have quit the barter in whiskies and wines, beginning today, January 1, 1915. They have sold out their entire stock, their sales for the past 30 days have beaten all records here. The M. C. Russell Company have a high standard of commercial activity and the firm will devote its energies to selling by wholesale, groceries, tobacco, brooms, etc., etc.

Omar Dodson and B. W. Goodman also quit the liquor business today.

MOVING PICTURE PROMOTER BE MAINS ILL.

Mr. Edward F. Breeze, proprietor of the Princess moving picture theater at Flemingburg and the Pastime theater at Augusta, who was badly injured a few days ago in an automobile smash-up, is still confined to his home, in East Fourth street, energetic to be sure, but he will

WILLIAMS-LAUBLEY

Popular Maysville Couple Married Last Evening At the Residence of the Bride.

Mr. Millard F. Williams and Miss Adelaide Laubley were quietly married at the home of the bride in Forest avenue last evening, Rev. R. L. Benn, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony.

Mr. Williams is one of Maysville's prosperous young business men, he being the proprietor of the Williams drug store, and his bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. August Laubley of Forest avenue and is one of Maysville's most attractive young ladies.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Williams left over the C. & O. for Huntington, W. Va., where they will spend their honeymoon with Mr. Williams' brother, Mr. Richard Williams. The Ledger joins with the many friends of both in wishing that their joys may be many, their sorrows few, and that they may enjoy a long and happy married life. The happy couple will reside in the groom's bungalow in Commerce street.

Foreigners in Arizona have filed suit in the Federal Court against the alien labor law recently adopted there.

Governor Ammons announced that saloons in the Colorado strike district would be allowed to be open.

MEETING OF MASON COUNTY CLOVER CLUB

The Mason County Clover Club will hold a meeting in Judge Whitaker's office in the court house on Saturday, January 2, at 2 p. m. Don't fail to be there. It is important that you attend this meeting. Samples will be on exhibition.

A KENTUCKY PHILOSOPHER.

The New York Times discovers a Kentucky celebrity, of whose name worth many of us have been ignorant.

This is Mr. Max S. Hundberry, who was a candidate last November for Representative in Congress in the First Kentucky District. It is true he was not elected—nobody but a Democrat can be elected in that district—but he has won deathless fame nevertheless by the phraseology of his report under the corrupt practice act.

In this report Mr. Hundberry says:
The only promise I made any living human being during the whole of my campaign was to my wife, whom I did promise that I would be with her at least as much more after the election than I had prior thereto, and I did give her a little advice, which was this: That we both get to Heaven, as there was about us having to go to Washington. Words of a true philosopher. Hundberry will make some people regret that they voted for Representative as Mr. Barkley.

From a humanitarian standpoint, of leasing the labor to responsible better one. They are always supervision of a state agent. They are and comfortably housed. They are to work longer than a given number. They have a corps of doctors. They are under instruction from the priest and the They have baths and medicines. They are fitted to read and write under supervision. Their labor comes in competition with free labor. But the same is true if they worked on the public roads. They would displace the same number of men, and their keep would be as great as the hire of free labor and teams. We don't think this can be safely disputed. Why should road builders be forced into competition with convict labor any more than shoe makers or broom makers?

Conditions in the ordinary jail or the ordinary convict camp can certainly not be as good as in the penitentiary.

There is just a whole lot of misapprehension and a whole lot of tommyrot in this business.—Bowling Green Messenger.

THE GOOD OLD TIMES AM GONE.

We don't hear "Christmas Gif!" shouted merrily on Christmas morning as it used to be. African slavery was a baneful institution, but as the years take us farther away from it, there passes the romantic figure of the old "slave time" the of the grizzled nap, the kindly smile, the pious mien, the love for children, whose "mas Gif!" may come to some of you, even winging across the years—benign reminders of the golden days of childhood.—Carlisle Ky.

OF COURSE NOT.

Although charity may begin at home, you could hardly expect a society woman who knits socks for the war sufferers to wear 'em herself.

ENSE UNNECESSARY.

Defense is always unnecessary. It is invariably possible to avoid being knocked down by lying down and being trampled.—New York Sun.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge has written a letter to the organ of the protectionists predicting that the tariff will be an issue in 1916.

MAKE BIG CITIES SOBER FIRST.

Most persons will agree that we should all be better off without alcohol. But this is not yet Russia, and we must not expect to lop off throughout the whole nation, at one blow, a habit that has persisted for many thousand years. If we are to be a nation of teetotalers, the great centers of population should first be persuaded, so that they will acquiesce when the time comes. For without such acquiescence there can be no effective prohibition.—Owensboro Messenger.

WOMAN TO THE FRONT.

Beginning March 1 the Cincinnati public school system will have a woman assistant superintendent for the first time in its history. The Board of Education concurred in the appointment of Miss Anna E. Logan and fixed her compensation at $2,500 for the first year's service. Miss Logan is now connected with Miami University, at Oxford, O. She was Dr. Condon's choice for the post and has been under consideration for some months.

HOBSON ASKS TWO DAYS' PRAYER.

Representative Hobson has addressed a letter to every clergyman in the United States, asking them to set aside two days to pray for the passage of his nation-wide prohibition resolution.

HAS GOT ITS ORDERS.

Congress must have been very much interested to learn what legislation it will enact during the next few months, and the President was the man to tell them.—Philadelphia Ledger.

HARD CASH SCARCE.

Hard cash must be scarce in Vermont when its farmers sell 1,000,000 "Christmas trees" at the rate of 6 and 7 cents apiece for shipment to other states.—New York Sun.

THIN ICE.

The old-fashioned man who didn't know it was loaded now has a son who is busily engaged trying an eight of an inch of ice with his new skates.—Boston Transcript.

THOSE WAR CENSORS.

If the war censors were giving out the weather news, it would appear that yesterday the winds beat and the rains fell "upon a certain place."—New York World.

THE MODERN WAY.

In dismissing stories of combat at sea the censors now say, "Tell it to the submarines."—Washington Evening Star.

DEGREES IN EXCITEMENT.

This promised aggressive Moose campaign ought to be almost as exciting as a lamb raid on a jungle.—Washington Post.

OUR GROWING ARMY.

We have only a few scattered refugees, but the armies of our idle workers grow too fast to count.—Boston Herald.

THE LONE VOICE.

That one Socialist who voted against the new German war loan has at least achieved notoriety.—Washington Star.

Great Thieves.
When General Sherman was riding through Georgia, a citizen came up to him and said with great earnestness: "General, I want protection; your men have stolen my pigs, lifted my hen-roosts and emptied my cellar; they have stolen everything except my hope of immortality; thank God, they can't steal that!"
"I don't know about that," said the general. "The Nineteenth Maine is coming along next."

Saved.
"Mama," said Willie, "will Deacon Jenks go to heaven when he dies?"
"I think so," said the mother.
"Well, I hope he won't."
"Why, dear, do you have such naughty hopes?"
"Because if he gets there he will want to run the whole place."

COLDS AFFECT THE KIDNEYS

Many Maysville People Have Found This to Be True.

Are you wretched in bad weather?
Does every cold settle on your kidneys?
Does your back ache and become weak?
Are urinary passages irregular and distressing?
These symptoms are a sure sign of kidney weakness. Weakened kidneys need quick help. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for weakened kidneys. Grateful people recommend them.

A. Sorries, Locks, Aberdeen, O., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to stand. I was always settled on my Doan's Kidney Pills. The trouble and my backache were cured."

An isolated case. Mr. of many in this district endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills—aches—if you don't simply try them, you can't distinctly name that cure. For Maysville, N. Y.

LATEST NEWS OF THE THEATRE.

The new Davis Theater in Pittsburgh is to open in January.
"Too Much Money" is the name of a new drama by Israel Zangwill.
And "I Want Money" is a farce soon to be produced by A. H. Woods.
Percy Haswell is to head a new stock organization in New Orleans.
Ann Swinburne is to star in a musical play to be written by Victor Herbert.
"A Gripful of Trouble" is the name of a new farce to be produced by H. H. Frazee.
David Belasco's first presentation in the New Year will be Frances Starr in a new play.
Granville Barker, the London producer, will begin a repertory season in New York soon.
"Lady Luxury" is the name of the new musical play by Rida Johnson Young, with music by William Schroeder.
"The Law of the Land" has passed its one hundredth performance at the Forty-eighth Street Theater, New York.
Elsie Janis is to appear soon under the direction of Charles Dillingham in a straight comedy production.
J. Fred Zimmerman is to enter the list of producing managers with a new play to be given early in the New Year.
"His Royal Happiness," the new play in which Annie Russell is to appear, is to be given an elaborate stage production.

Marie Lehr is to be leading woman with George Alexander in a new comedy announced for production in London in January.
"Miss Daisy," a musical comedy by Philip Bartholomae and Silvio Hein, has been re-written and re-named "At the Ball."
Irving Berlin, composer of the successful "Watch Your Step," is to write another musical revue for production by Charles Dillingham.

Betty Nansen, one of the famous tragediennes of the Danish stage, is to come to America to do some acting for the moving pictures.
"The Girl of Girls," a new musical comedy my Oreste Vessella and Edward Paulton, is to have its first presentation in Washington next week.
Maurice Farkas, who has lately been playing in London, is to be in the cast of "Tonight's the Night," to be produced at the Shubert theater, New York.

The revue which Klaw & Erlanger are soon to produce will be called "Fads and Fancies," and will be founded on a recent European production of the same name.
From all reports, William Hodge is likely to achieve as much success in "The Road to Happiness" as he did in his old play, "The Man from Home."

Carolyn Thompson, who is singing the title role in the operetta "Adele," is a Minneapolis girl who has risen to stellar parts after only two years' stage experience.

Philadelphia is to have a branch headquarters of the American Federation of Labor.
In five years the government has paid out $1,803,925 under the Federal Compensation act.
Virginia is rigorously enforcing the law which provides a maximum of ten hours a day for working women.

A formal petition for higher wages for women workers in Milwaukee has been filed with the Wisconsin Industrial Commission.
After January 9, under a new ordinance, the wages of city employees of St. Louis are to conform to the prevailing union scale.
President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor will speak in Indianapolis January 4, on the subject of the Clayton anti-trust act.

The State Court of Appeals of Kentucky has held unconstitutional the workmen's compensation act passed by the Legislature of that state last winter.

Announcement has been made that legislation, modeled after the Canadian Industrial Dispute act, will be introduced at the session of the West Virginia Legislature to begin next month.
Walter N. Reddick of Seattle, has been chosen secretary-treasurer of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, to fill out the unexpired term of James W. Dougherty, who died recently.

A measure providing for a workman's commission of five men will be introduced in the Missouri legislature at its coming session as a possible solution of the problem of the wages and conditions of laboring women and girls.

The Wisconsin Industrial Commission has ruled that an employer into consideration curiosity as to the siveness of young employees was reached in the year-old employe of a wa-turing company who put his hand under the a machine called an e-lion drew the

MUMMERS MAKE MERRY IN PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Pa., January 1.—This was the day of the annual Mummers' parade in Philadelphia, the one big day of the year for scores of clubs that exist for the sole purpose of donning fancy or comic dress and parading the streets of the Quaker City in competition for rich prizes offered by the merchants and others. The parade today was one of the biggest and best seen in many years. Hundreds of paraders were in line. The comic makeups aroused a continuous outburst of merriment, while the rich and expensive fancy costumes of other of the clubs also drew forth the enthusiastic admiration of the great crowds of spectators.

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

Eugene Clark of Decatur, Ga., produced 132 bushels of corn on one acre, in a corn growing contest.

Lawrence Reeves of Warren county, was awarded first prize for growing the largest number of bushels of corn to the acre in Warren County Corn Club, a total of 103 bushels. The prize was a thoroughbred Duroc Jersey pig.

J. W. Spalding & Son of Bardstown, sold to J. P. Hudson Sons & Company, 25 mules, said to be the finest and fattest load of mules ever shipped from Nelson county. Twenty-three of these brought over $200 per head, and one pair brought $500. These mules were shipped to New Orleans.

PASADENA HOLDS ROSE FETE.

Pasadena, Cal., January 1.—One hundred thousand dollars' worth of choicest buds and blossoms, gathered and contributed by forty cities of southern California, helped to make Pasadena's annual tournament of roses today the most elaborate floral display in the quarter century that the tournament has been a New Year feature here. The floral parade was the big feature of the day. Upwards of 100,000 people lined the route of march. Following the review the remainder of the day was devoted to open air entertainments. These included a rodeo, followed by an allegorical presentation of the development of the southwest.

TO TEACH NATIONAL HYMNS.

Detroit, Mich., January 1.—Dr. Chas. E. Chadsey, superintendent of the public schools of Detroit, is of the belief that not more than one person in 10,000 knows all the stanzas of the "Star-Spangled Banner" and "America." In consequence of this belief he has directed that a part of every school day during the month beginning today shall be devoted by the school pupils to learning the words of the two national hymns.

INDIANA TO PAY DEBTS.

Indianapolis, Ind., January 1.—The state of Indiana will begin the new year with all debts that are due paid. The State Board of Finance at a meeting this afternoon authorized the payment of a current indebtedness of $685,000 owed to Indianapolis, Tipton and Greencastle banks, and a foreign debt of $130,000. The payment of the foreign debt removes the last of the indebtedness caused by the construction of the state house.
